Can I commission you for a custom keyboard design?

99.9% of the time, no.

The only exceptions are for large scale requests, such as a function-specific keyboard for a specific use case, or customized orders for the employees of a company. For such requests, please contact ai03 via Discord (join the Discord server here, then send a direct message to ai03#2725) or via email (admin@ai03.com).
